These funds implement a learning recovery program for: low income students, English learners, homeless, foster, abuse/neglect/exploitation, plus other students identified by certified staff. This funding goes towards parent educators, after school program, in addition to ASES. $10,000 is the training for school staff and strategies to engage families to address social/emotional health. This will go towards a professional development program for Mel Kelley and three aids at Grizzly Hill School. Mel is finding best practices and would like to include Julie from Washington in this. This is a $10,000 cap and the training will
